St. Francis' Salutation of the Blessed Virgin

Throughout his life, Francis maintained a deep and tender devotion to Mary. It was in the little Church of Mary of the Angels that he often prayed. Her faith strengthened his faith. Thomas of Celano, the first biographer of St. Francis, says that he was filled with inexpressible love of Mary because it was "she who made the Lord of Majesty our brother: Francis recognized a kindred spirit in Mary, as one who believed strongly and responded fully to the Father.

Leader: Salutation of St. Francis to the Blessed Virgin
Hail, holy Lady, most holy Queen, Mother of God, ever Virgin. You were chosen by the Most High Father in heaven, consecrated by Him, with His Most Holy Beloved Son and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. On you descended and still remains all the fullness of grace and every good. Hail His Palace. Hail His Tabernacle. Hail His Robe. Hail His Handmaid. Hail His Mother, and Hail all holy Virtues, who by grace and inspiration of the Holy Spirit, are poured into the hearts of the faithful so that from their faithless state, they may be made faithful servants of God through you.

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Leader:

A reading from the book of Wisdom (3:1-8)

But the souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For, if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble. They shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 130

Leader: Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading.

All: My soul is longing for the Lord.

Leader: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness, for this we revere you.

All: My soul is longing for the Lord.

Leader: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on His word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. Let the watchman count on daybreak and Israel on the Lord.

Canticle of Brother Sun

As a result of the stigmata, Francis was continuously in pain until his death two years later. After receiving a revelation regarding his merits in suffering, however, he was so consoled with peace and joy that in a rapture of thanksgiving, he composed a hymn of praise to the Lord whose creatures he so revered, and who served God and man so faithfully.
